Guest Artist

Kenn Wagner

Kenn Wagner has been a first violinist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra since 1994, and has also served as acting assistant concertmaster of the ASO. Outside of the ASO he has also appeared abroad as guest soloist with the Shenzhen Symphony Orchestra in China, and Christ Church Symphony string section, in New Zealand. Nationally he has soloed with the New Orleans Symphony, Arlington symphony and the Wintergreen Music Festival Orchestra.

Locally, Kenn has also appeared as soloist with the Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra, the Dekalb Symphony, Clark/Spellman Symphony, Atlanta Philharmonic, and the Atlanta Musicians' Orchestra. Kenn enjoys chamber music and performs with groups such as the Riverside Chamber Players, Leptrott Trio, Atlanta Chamber Players, Awadagin Pratt’s Next Generation Festival, and National Chamber Players with special guest Kenneth Slowik of the Smithsonian Chamber Players. He has also performed at the Piccolo Spoleto festival with The Orlando Chamber Soloists and with The Leptrott trio. He has been a guest performer with members of the Grammy Award winning Cuarteto Latino Americano in Puebla Mexico. Mr. Wagner has also performed chamber music at Spivey Hall with Alan Morrison faculty member of the Curtis Institute.

Kenn is a graduate of Indiana University and serves on the faculty at Kennesaw State and Morehouse College.
